

Nursery History: What makes me, me?

Subject vocabulary
Remember	To think of something again.
Younger	A child that is a younger age than another child.
Older	A child that is of an older age than another child.
Before	Something that happened in the past.
Past	Just happened or a long time ago.
Future	Something that is to come.
Son	When parents have a boy.
Daughter	When parents have a girl.
Familiar	Someone that you know.
Recognise	Someone or something that you have seen before.
Parents	Father or a mother
Celebration	A special party or occasion
Festival	A special event for a group of people or community.
Belong	Feel part of a group or community.

Sticky Knowledge
REN.5	It is important we belong
HN.2	Family units can look different from one another.
REN.2	There are people familiar to us and people who are special.
HN.3	Familiar people are people that we know.
HN.8	Same is like another and different is not the same.
HN.4	Things that happen might influence my future.
REN.3	There are many times that are special to people.
HN.5	Stories can be told and passed down from one person to the next.
HN.6	We get older each year on our birthday.
HN.9	Time can change things. (Weather, seasons, events).

